

International Research Network
“Transforming Homo Economicus”
15th Workshop, Friday, November 6, 2026

École normale supérieure Paris-Saclay, Room TBA

10:00 – 10:30 am: Welcome (coffee, tea and viennoiserie)

10:30 -11:20 am

Roslyn Dubler, Max Planck Institute

Sociological Feminism, Labour Politics, and the Political Economy of Social Rights in the 1970s”

11:30 -12:20 pm

Wolf Feuerhahn, CNRS & École Polytechnique

Nationalökonomie as Kulturwissenschaft: The Controversial Origins of the Weberian Method

12:20 – 2:00pm: Lunch

2:00 - 2:50 pm

Michael Rossi, University of Chicago

The Voyage of the Zaca: Low Culture on the High Seas in 1930s Anthropology

3:00 – 3:50 pm

Steve Medema, Duke University

Henry Manne, Pareto in the Pines, and the Origins of the Law and Economics Movement

3:50 – 4:10 pm: Tea/coffee break

4:10 – 5:00 pm

Jeff Pooley, University of Pennsylvania

Obliteration by Partial Incorporation: The Collective Behavior Tradition in U.S. Sociology and Communication Research

*This workshop has received support from the CNRS and France 2030 ANR-11-IDEX-0003 programme
Contact: <philippe.fontaine@ens-paris-saclay.fr>*